Dear Parishioners,

Some ask if the Mass is about to change. The answer is ... "no" and "yes." "No," the Mass is not changing from November 27 onwards. There is nothing that has changed in the familiar pattern of our official liturgical prayer. The structure and meaning of the entrance rites, the liturgy of the Word, the liturgy of the Eucharist, and the concluding rites will still remain familiar. "Yes," there will be some retranslated words from modern American English into Latinized worldwide English in our responses at Mass that will cause us for a time to adjust some of our responses and the words of the Gloria and the Creed. Growth involves change. Our Church is not stagnant, but continues to grow in its relationship with Christ. As the Church matures in time, there will always be a need to examine the words and the vocabulary we use in worship. As my (so far) all-time favorite sci-fi novel states and the screenplay for its 1984 big-screen film version repeats, "Without change, something sleeps inside us, and seldom awakens."

Fr. Mark

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

40 Days For Life is a national program of prayer and fasting for an end to abortion. The program requires a personal commitment of 1 hour a week during the 40 day session at an abortion clinic. The vigil lasts from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. 7 days a week during the 40 day period. Some participants stand in silent prayerful witness, while others say the most powerful prayer of the Rosary. The Vigil is always prayerful, and will be an opportunity for us to witness to our Catholic Faith and our determination by God's grace to end the practice of abortion in our land. To participate in the program which runs from Sept 26 – Nov. 6, please contact Mary Ellen at 732-291-4835, or visit www.40daysforlife.com/shrewsbury.

A PRAYER FOR LIFE

Gentle Virgin Mary,
Mother of the Son of God
Woman of Love
who gave life
to the Savior of the World, please pray with us
for all mothers and for their unborn children.

Your Divine Son
came to save us from sin and death.
Intercede for our modern world to save all of us, especially mothers, from the deceptions
of the culture of death.
Help us to secure legal protection for all unborn babies so that they too might be free to live full and fruitful lives.

Dearest Jesus, Light of Life, listen to the words of your Mother as you did at the Wedding Feast of Cana, and grant us success in saving the mothers and children of our modern world from any interference
in the process of life.
Help us to transform our world into your Kingdom of Love and Life.
