Dear Parishioners,

The Holy Eucharist is a Sacrament in which Christ himself is truly though not visibly present as God and Man, with his glorified Body and Blood, under the appearances of bread and wine, to offer himself on the altar as our sacrifice and to give himself as our sacrificial food.

The Eucharistic celebration is a holy meal which recalls the Last Supper, reminds us of our unity with each other in Christ, and anticipates the banquet of the kingdom of heaven. In the Eucharist, Christ the Lord nourishes Christians, not only with his word but also with his Body and Blood, effecting a transformation which impels them toward greater love of God and neighbor." (National Catholic Directory, #120).

Are we properly disposed to receive the Lord sacramental Body and Blood every time we attend and participate in Mass? Are we free from sacramentally unconfessed serious (i.e., "mortal") sin when we "go up" to receive Communion? Do we mindlessly receive Communion simply because we are attending a Mass and everyone else in our row seems to be filing out and forward but with ourselves not being properly prepared spiritually?

The gift of the Body and Blood of Christ is a treasure that we will never fully understand or truly appreciate in this life, but hopefully in the life to come forever with the Lord in heaven.

Fr. Mark

Mission Appeal – Holy Family Church
July 23 & 24

Fr. Rex Lumine, Director of the charity service organization of the Diocese of Tuticorin, will be speaking at all Masses the weekend of July 23 and 24 regarding the charitable mission of the Diocese of Tuticorin. The following will describe the good works of the Diocese of Tuticorin.

Evangelization: In our diocesan area first conversion to Christianity happened in the 1530s. In 1600s there were 6 parishes with lot of new missions. In 1923 it became a new diocese with 41 parishes. Now we are 108 parishes. Thus we are growing. Still 88% of the people who belong to other religion are to be evangelized. We have our diocesan religious sisters and trained catechists who do direct evangelization. They go and visit the houses in the villages. We do lot of apostolate s and charitable works to them which includes both Catholics and non-Catholics.

Now we are: Parishes- 108, Missions (sub-stations)-339, Diocesan priests -108, Religious priests-25, Religious brothers-38, Catechists-18, and Diocesan seminarians-115. Our Ministries include: Youth, Vocation, Laity, Pius Associations, Education, Health, Labor, Communication Media, Christian life, and Peace and Justice. Our Apostolate include: Hospitals-13, Dispensaries-9, Home for the disabled-4, Lepers and AIDs home-1, Women rescue home-2, Home for children-28, Crèches for abandoned infants-1, Home for the aged-3, Family counseling center-1, Rehab center for Alcoholic-1, High schools-31, and Elementary schools-198. All are free service including food and medicine. We serve Catholics and non-Christians. Since our biggest Catholic population is living below the poverty line, we face great economic challenges. It is not easy to support all our priests and seminarians. We need to upkeep all our ministries and apostolate. Trusting in God, we keep doing our best. Your generosity allows you participate in the fruits of their good works.

DIOCESAN PILGRIMAGE TO THE BASILICA OF THE NATIONAL SHRINE
OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION – 9/17/11

Bishop O'Connell invites the clergy and the faithful, of the Diocese of Trenton, to journey with him to the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception on Saturday September 17. A pilgrimage is a devotional act of faith that has been part of human religious experiences for centuries. This year's pilgrimage will be a public witness to the Bishops' Pastoral letter on marriage: Love and Life in the Divine Plan. At a time when the media, government, and society offers little support to married couples, Bishop O'Connell calls the people of the Diocese to pray with and for married couples and their families.

There will be opportunities for couples to renew their marriage vows and receive a blessing. Bishop O'Connell hopes that husbands, wives, and their children, young, single and married will travel together to the Shrine this year. Please contact Sr. Gloria Jean for reservation information at 732-264-1484 or 732-739-3065.
