NO 8 A.M. MASS

WEDNESDAY OR THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 11/12

PRIEST CONVOCATION.

First Reading: Wisdom 9:13-18b

This reading acknowledges that people have had a difficult time attempting to know God's wishes. At times we have difficulty understanding the things that happen on earth. Therefore, learning of things in heaven would have been impossible, except that God sent us wisdom and the Holy Spirit to help us understand him.

Second Reading: Philemon 9-10, 12-17

Paul writes to Philemon regarding Onesimus, a slave who ran away and encountered Paul. Although Paul wished Onesimus could remain with him, he did not want to violate Philemon's wishes. Paul asks that Philemon receives his friend Onesimus as a beloved brother, not as a slave. He closes by saying, "Welcome him as you would me."

Gospel: Luke 14:25-33

Jesus warns people who wish to follow him that they must abandon everyone else first. A person calculates the amount of money needed to complete a project before they begin it. In the same way, Jesus warns these people to consider exactly what is involved before they make a commitment to follow him.

Promises of the Rosary
 Fifteen of Fifteen Promises

15. Devotion to my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.

Predestination in this context means that, by the sign which is present to a person from the action of devoutly praying the Rosary, God has pre-ordained your salvation. Absolute certainty of salvation can only be truly known if God reveals it to a person because, although we are given sufficient Grace during life, our salvation depends upon our response to said Grace. (See Summa Theologica, Question 23 for a detailed theological explanation). Said another way, if God has guaranteed a person's salvation but has not revealed it to Him, God would want that person to pray the Rosary because of all the benefits and Graces obtained. Therefore the person gets a hint by devotion to the Rosary. This is not to say that praying the Rosary guarantees salvation - by no means. In looking at promises #3 and #4 above, praying the Rosary helps one to live a holy life, which is itself a great sign that a soul is on the road to salvation. (See also paragraphs 381, 488, 600, 2782 in the Catechism of the Catholic Church.) In fact, St. Louis de Montfort says even more strongly that "an infallible and unmistakable sign by which we can distinguish a heretic, a man of false doctrine, an enemy of God, from one of God's true friends is that the hardened sinner and heretic show nothing but contempt and indifference to Our Lady..." [True Devotion to Mary, #30]

My immune system is developing. My mom is passing her antibodies on to me. After birth she will continue to transfer them to me through her breast milk. I now keep my eyes open when I am awake and close them when I am asleep. Light penetrates through my mom's tummy so I am able to tell when it is light outside and when it is dark. Wow, the world must be an amazing place! I can't wait to see it! Thanks for praying for me and my mom and dad!

GOSPEL TODAY September 8, 2013 | 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time | Luke 14:25-33
 As disciples of Christ our mission* is total dedication to God. Nothing should be a distraction—not family, possessions or hardships. Then, be prepared for peace, love, happiness and salvation, the rewards of discipleship.

Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. Luke 14:27 Mission An assignment to be carried out.*
