TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14

God became very angry with the Israelites for worshipping a molten calf and making sacrifices to it. The people had so quickly violated his commandments that he planned to destroy them. But Moses pleaded with God for mercy and God relented.

Second Reading: 1 Timothy 1:12-17

Paul considered himself a former blasphemer and persecutor, and expressed his gratitude for the mercy Jesus showed him. Paul felt that he was a perfect example of Jesus' patience toward sinners and his desire to reconcile them with God.

Gospel: Luke 15:1-32

The Pharisees grew angry because of the Jesus' compassion toward sinners. In response, Jesus tells of a son who squandered his inheritance, then returned to his father and asked to be treated as a hired hand. The father rejoiced, angering his older and more obedient son. The father explained that everything he owned belonged to his older son; but he had to rejoice for the son who was lost and had been found.

Diocesan Pilgrimage
To the National Basilica of the Immaculate Conception in Washington
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2013

Bishop David O'Connell invites the clergy and the faithful, of the Diocese of Trenton, to journey with him to the National Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, DC on Saturday, October 19th. To make a pilgrimage is a religious devotion that has been part of human religious experiences for centuries. The journey of a pilgrim symbolizes the spiritual journey of the disciple. Disciples step out of their normal routine and allow the physical journey to stretch their inner journey into the heart of God. They discover their own need for conversion as they draw near to the "Holy." Our nation and world continue to experience a series of crises that causes many to despair and live with great anxiety.

Bus/es will leave St. Benedict at 7:00 a.m. The ride will include: Donuts and juice, Morning Prayer and the recitation of the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary with reflection and Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary with reflection. Estimated arrival at the Basilica will be 11:00 a.m. At noon, the Gathering in the Great Upper Church will include: a Welcome, the Angelus and the recitation of the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary. At 12:30 p.m., there will be A Blessing for Individual Families at the various Chapels in the Upper Church. Confessions will be heard in the Crypt Church beginning at 1:30 p.m. Mass will be celebrated in the Great Upper Church at 3:00 p.m.

We will depart at 4:30 p.m. and the ride home will include: a buffet dinner in Baltimore, Evening Prayer, and the recitation of the Glorious Mysteries of the Rosary with reflection. Estimated time of return is 10:00 p.m. The cost is $50.00 per person.

Fill out the form below and mail to: St. Benedict, 165 Bethany Rd., Holmdel, NJ 07733. Please mark your envelope to read "Diocesan Pilgrimage."

For additional information contact St. Benedict's parish office at 732/264-4712.

DEADLINE TO REGISTER IS OCTOBER 11, 2013.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM

Week 35

I am now about 20 inches long and weigh about 5 ½ pounds. From now, until I am born, I won't grow much longer. It is already pretty cramped in here. My weight gain will be body fat. Fifteen percent of my current weight is from body fat, but by the time I am born, thirty percent will be from body fat. All this fat will make my arms and legs and body nice and plump! My fingernails reach the tips of my fingers. I am going to need a manicure soon Mom! My brain is growing super fast too. My hearing is fully developed. Keep talking to me Mom and Dad! Please continue to remember me in your prayers.

Mass and Rosary for the Unborn

Saturday 8 a.m. – September 21

Holy Family Respect Life Reps invite you to join them on Saturday September 21st at the 8 a.m. Mass for the Unborn followed by the Rosary for the Unborn. A meeting will follow at the Red Oak for those who wish to assist in the planning and help on the day of the upcoming baby shower and other Respect Life events in our parish. Call Donna Valania for more information at the parish office at 732-264-1484.
