SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM

Week 37

[Psalms 138:16 III Your eyes have seen my actions; in your book they are all written; my days were limited, before one existed.] God knows me so well. How exciting! I wonder what my Heavenly Father has in store for me! I weigh about six and a half pounds. Did you know baby boys are likely to weigh more than girls at birth? As a matter of fact, during their pregnancy, moms of boys tend to eat more than moms of girls. Maybe that is to prepare them for the teen years when boys' appetites really grow. My eyesight is amazing. When I see light outside my mom's tummy, I turn my head to look at it. I'm getting use to activity when it is light outside and quiet when it is dark. I think that is called getting on a schedule! It is time for me to get back to exercising my lungs by "breathing" my amniotic fluid. I don't have much time left to get my lungs into tip-top shape for my big appearance that is fast approaching. Please pray for my parents and me. Thank you!

PARISH MINISTRY FAIR

“Good people do good things because of the good in their heart.”

Luke 6:45

“Thank you” to all our ministry leaders and parishioners who helped to make last weekend’s Ministry Fair a success.

Fifteen parish ministries were represented welcoming and inviting children and adults to serve Holy Family Church by their active support.

Twenty-two people signed up for Wednesday Adoration, 55 people offered to become an active part of the present ministry programs, in addition to 16 enthusiastic bakers for our Religious Education Parent Organization fundraisers.

If you are still considering being part of our programs don’t hesitate to call the parish offices for more information. We especially need someone to help coordinate our Nursing Ministry.

Thank you again and God bless you all for your good hearts.

Dear Parishioners,

Confirmation is the second sacrament of initiation and is associated with the other two sacraments of Christian initiation: Baptism and the Holy Eucharist.

When adults are received into the Church, they receive the sacraments of initiation in the traditional order: Baptism, Confirmation, and the Holy Eucharist.

The practice of the western (Latin) Church is to baptize children as infants, to allow them to receive the Holy Eucharist for the first time at about age seven and to allow them to be confirmed between the ages of twelve and seventeen.

The sacrament of Confirmation was instituted by Christ when he conferred the Holy Spirit on his apostles and others and then later more strikingly on Pentecost.
