TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

Isaiah speaks of how the Servant of God will have to give his life up for the sins of other people. Because of this suffering the Servant will receive eternal life for himself and all the people whose sins are forgiven because of him.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16

Jesus is considered to be the new high priest and mediator between God and his people. Fortunately, Jesus has experienced the same temptations as other people, and so he has more tolerance of our weaknesses.

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

Two of the disciples ask Jesus that they be allowed to sit at his right and left side when he comes into his glory. Jesus explains that they should not be concerned with their position. Instead they should concern themselves with serving others just as Jesus was planning to serve many in giving his own life for their sins.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY
OCTOBER 18

Your ongoing support of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith is vital to the missionaries serving in 1,150 dioceses throughout Asia, Africa, parts of Latin America and Europe, and on the Islands of the Pacific. Your generosity makes it possible for local priests, religious, and catechists to reach out to communities, families and children in desperate need, bringing the light of Christ to the darkest of circumstances. Please be generous in your support of the world missions.

Gospel Today

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Mark 10:35-45

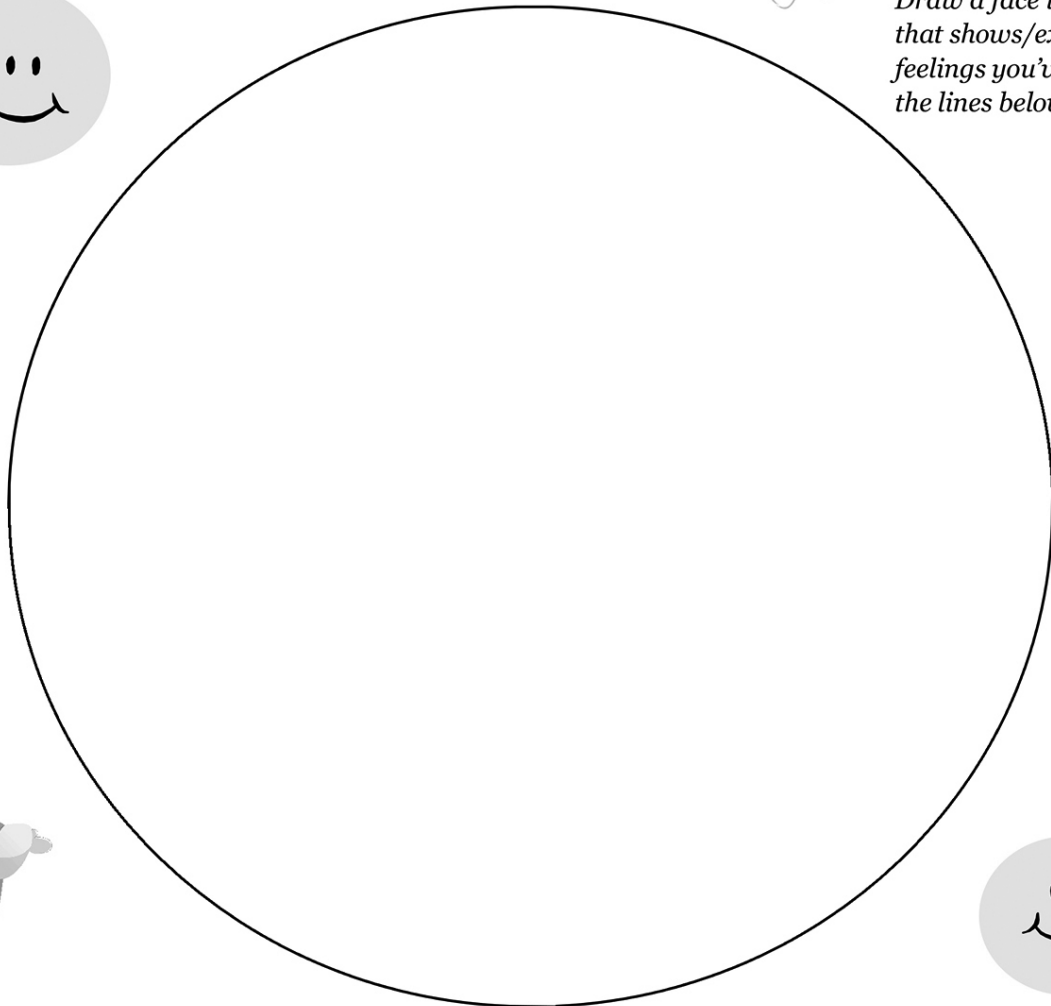

Jesus wants us to be giving of ourselves, and serve others.

©2015 Bon Venture Services, LLC

World Mission Sunday is a way for everyone to be of service to others like Jesus tells us in today's gospel.

Draw a face in the circle that shows/expresses the feelings you've written on the lines below.

Sharing makes me feel...

Helping others makes them feel...

This is how Jesus feels when we give and help others...

World Mission Sunday, organized by The Society for the Propagation of Faith, brings together Catholics worldwide. We work together building and improving all aspects of our church.
