It is the Spirit that gives life

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b

Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel and told them if it did not please them to serve God, then they must decide who they would serve. The people claimed that God had brought them out of slavery and protected them on their journey. Therefore, they would serve, the Lord their God, and no one else.

Second Reading: Ephesians 5:21-32 or 5:2a, 25-32

Husbands and wives should love one another as Christ loved the Church. They should nourish and care for each other as Christ cared for the church. Through the union between the two, they become one.

Gospel: John 6:60-69

Many of Jesus' followers were still disturbed by his teaching of the living bread, which they could not yet fully understand. Jesus explained that the Spirit gives life, and flesh is unimportant. Some of the disciples decided to leave. Jesus asked if the Twelve also wanted to leave. Although they do not completely understand yet, they have enough faith in Jesus to stay because they believe he is God's holy one.

Gospel Today

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time | John 6:60-69

Some of Jesus' followers found it difficult to understand His teachings and went back to their old lives. The Twelve had enough faith to believe Jesus was God's Holy One.

Like those found in today's readings, we live the faith of Joshua, Simon Peter, the disciples and St. Paul as we serve the Lord.

Color, cut and hang where the family gathers.

As for me and
my household,
we will serve the LORD.
